GHIN UPDATE

Active GHIN members will see their annual handicap dues in their upcoming monthly statements. The 2023 annual fee of $35 allows you to become an active member of the USGA and user of the GHIN Handicap service. GHIN stands for Golf Handicap and Information Network," which is a handicapping service provided by the United States Golf Association (USGA) to participating associations and clubs. Features of having a GHIN Handicap includes mobile device login and scoring, statistics and analysis of your rounds, sharing and keeping track with your fellow league or group members, and new features such as course mapping and gps.

GHIN is the most widely accepted Handicap Index, and is often the ONLY Handicap Index you can use to enter specific golf tournaments or events. If you would like to learn more about starting your GHIN Handicap, or questions related to the GHIN mobile app, please contact Kyle at kyleboteler@gmail.com
